

Saturday,
October 22, 2005

7:30 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.

Holiday Inn Sacramento Capitol Plaza

The North American Symposium on Bat Research is the organizer of this teacher workshop in conjunction with its annual meeting being held in Sacramento. This workshop is provided as a community service to the city where the NASBR meets.

NASBR 10th Anniversary Teacher Workshop BATS OF CALIFORNIA

- 7:30 a.m. Registration
- 8:00 a.m. Welcome and Introductions: Pat Morton, Texas Parks and Wildlife Department
- 8:05 a.m. Get Acquainted Activity: Pat Morton
- 8:15 a.m. Sacramento Zoo Resources for Teaching Science
Robin Whittall, Education Director, Sacramento Zoo
- 8:45 a.m. Which Bat is That?
Stephanie Remington, CA
- 9:30 a.m. The Bats of California
Dr. Patricia Brown-Berry, UCLA Department of Physiological Sciences and Brown-Berry Consulting
- 10:15 a.m. Wings in the Night: A Celebration of Bats
Patricia Winters, Wings in the Night Education Programs
- 11:00 a.m. Break
- 11:15 a.m. Bat Conservation and Motivating Your Audience
Rob Mies, Organization for Bat Conservation, MI
- 12:00 p.m. Bats and Echolocation in the Classroom
Dr. Stephen Burnett, Clayton State University, GA
- 1:00 p.m. Bats in Your World – Urban Bats!
Dharma Weber, California Native Bat Conservancy

Bat Resource Packets!
Live Bats!
Door Prizes!

The workshop is limited to 35 educators. Registration is on a first come basis. Register by mailing a check for $15 payable to NASBR to: Sacramento Zoo, Education Department, 3930 West Land Park Drive, Sacramento, CA 95822. All inquiries about the workshop should be sent to: patricia.morton@tpwd.state.tx.us (512) 912-7020 www.nasbr.org

GENEROUS SPONSORSHIP FOR THE WORKSHOP HAS BEEN PROVIDED BY:

Bat Conservation International, Bat Research News, Lubee Bat Conservancy, North American Symposium on Bat Research, Organization for Bat Conservation, California Native Bat Conservancy, Speleobooks and Texas Parks and Wildlife Dept.

